

With the Doughboy in France (WWI Centenary Series)

This early work by Edward Hungerford was originally published in 1920 and we are now republishing it as part of our Wwi Centenary Series. With the Doughboy in France is a history of the American forces in France during World War One. It especially focusses on the work of the Red Cross and their organisation and operation. It includes chapters titled The American Red Cross as a Department Store, Our Red Cross Performs Its Supreme Mission, When Johnny Came Marching Home, and many more. This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis. The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the worlds bloodiest wars, offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history. Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context.
